Community Awareness Expo: A Greenbelt Jaycees Project

by Marion E. Glick

Eleven public service organizations were part of the small but informative Community Awareness Expo 1982 on October 28 - 30 at the Beltway Plaza in Greenbelt. The Expo was sponsored by the Greenbelt Jaycees to introduce service groups to the local community.

"We hope to do it every six months, once in the spring and again in the fall," Jerald I. Garfinkel, president of the Greenbelt Jaycees, said. The Jaycees invited over 40 groups to participate, but less than 20 expressed a desire to attend.

According to Garfinkel, several of the attending organizations were grateful for the chance to be a part of the Expo. "We wanted any organization that worked within the public to come," he said. "We got the (groups') names from a directory in the library."

Some groups, such as the Mental Health Association of Prince George's County, Inc., in Riverdale, focused on educating the public. Their booth had information on the organization and its Prince George's County Hotline. "It's a source of information of services for the people in the community experiencing difficulties," Susan Carter, P.G. Hotline volunteer, explained.

The display also emphasized stress. "It's a really big and common problem," Carter said, "because of the changes in today's society." The Association has many resources, including speakers and the P.G. Hotline, to help people cope with stress, she added.

Three groups, Metro Home Safety from Alexandria, Va., Prince George's County REACT, Inc., of College Park, and National Capital Poison Center of Washington, D.C., had information on how to help people in emergencies.

The Metro Home Safety's booth had a survey testing fire knowledge as well as numerous booklets on fire safety. They also were publicizing that group members "can come to your home and tell you how to get out and what to do in case of a fire," Pearleanna Morris, fire safety consultant, said.

Volunteers working mostly from their homes help provide REACT, Inc.'s emergency radio service. Bob Kinser, a REACT board of directors member, said the group monitors the citizens band radio channel nine. "We take the calls and then contact the appropriate authorities."

Other groups, such as the Parents Without Partners Nomad

Chapter and the Prince George's County Council of Big Brothers, offered information on their support groups in addition to looking for new members.

Commenting on the public's response, Jay Arnold, vice president of the Prince George's Big Brothers, said, not too many people came to the booth. "We've found it more productive to approach some people."

The public did stop by the Disabled American Veterans booth. "We were able to help several men who didn't even know they were eligible for aid," Lewis Fowler, commander of the DAV's 23rd chapter in Greenbelt and Hyattsville, said.

The American Smoke Out and many patient services were highlighted at the American Cancer Society Prince George's County Chapter's booth. They also had information on a new service, a Make Today Count group. "It's a support group for cancer patients and whoever is important to them," Andrea Hay, a Society volunteer said.

Also attending the Expo were the United Way, The Washington Area Intergroup Association of Alcoholics Anonymous and the Second Mile House. The Second Mile House, a United Way agency in Hyattsville, offers help to runaways.

Education Week

Teachers, students and staff will showcase the Prince Georges County Public Schools through a wide variety of activities next week as the school system celebrates American Education Week (November 14-20) in the classrooms and in local shopping centers.

The celebration will begin with an education extravaganza to be held at Iverson Mall on Friday, November 12, from 6 p.m. to 9 p.m. and on Saturday, November 13, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Mini-classes, student art demonstrations, hearing and vision screenings and 20 displays focusing on the instructional programs offered by the public school system will be open to the public throughout the two-day fair.

Staff from the school system's Howard B. Owens Science Center will produce popular "Magic on the Mall" program every hour on the half hour.

On Monday, November 15, and Tuesday, November 16, similar activities will be featured at Landover Mall from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. and at Prince Georges Plaza on Saturday, November 20, from 12 noon to 4 p.m.

The Eleanor Roosevelt High School Band will perform at Landover Mall on Nov. 15 at 6:30 p.m.

Harvey Geller: 6 Medal Winner

Harvey Geller, long time resident of Greenbelt, won six medals in the Maryland Senior Olympics, held at Towson State University on October 16. He competed in the 60 to 64-year age group in this annual affair sponsored by the State of Maryland and Blue Cross. Geller demonstrated his versatility by collecting medals in bicycling, running, swimming, race walking, and jumping.

He started the day by winning both the half mile and one mile bicycle races, posting the fastest times for all age groups in both of these races. With just enough time to change from cycling shoes to running shoes, he ran and placed third in the one-mile running race.

He then had to take a bus to the swimming pool where the next event was to take place. After changing into swimming trunks, he stayed long enough to win the 50-yard breast stroke race. A quick shower and a change back to running clothes preceded another bus ride back to the stadium and the track, where he arrived in time to place third in the standing broad jump.

In his sixth and final event of the day, the one and a half mile race walk, Geller won with a winning time of 15 minutes 12 seconds. This was not only the fastest time for all competitors in all age groups, but was almost two minutes faster than the previous Maryland Senior Olympics record for this event.

While there are no records kept on the number of medals won by individuals, the four gold and two bronze medals that Geller was awarded is believed to be one of the outstanding achievements in the three-year history of this event.

CLASSICAL MUSIC COMES TO UTOPIA

This weekend the Utopia Theater will feature a classical concert program (This Friday and Saturday evenings at 8:15 p.m.) focusing on the local talents of David Charney, pianist of Takoma Park; Nathan Lerner, violinist of Potomac, and Cliff Bernsen, violinist and resident of Greenbelt.

The programs will feature Rhapsody in G Minor by Brahms, Spring Sonata by Beethoven and Concert in D Minor for Two Violins by Bach.

Bernsen majored in music at American University and the University of Maryland and has performed with the Prince Georges Philharmonic and Symphony, the University of Maryland Orchestra and the Greenbelt Chamber Orchestra.

Crime Prevention Committee Meeting

The next regular meeting of the Greenbelt Crime Prevention Committee will be Tuesday, November 16, at 8 p.m. in the City

Greenbelt Museum Committee Forming

by Sandra Barnes

About a dozen people gathered in the Greenbelt Library on October 19 to determine if and how a Greenbelt Museum could be formed. A committee was originally organized by Greenbelt Homes, Inc. to determine the feasibility of preserving an original home unit in light of the changes rehabilitation was bringing. The GHI committee, chaired by Ray McCawley, felt that the museum should be a city-wide venture, not just one involving the housing cooperative. Thus, who would run it, how to start it, where it would be located, how would it be financed, and a lot of other questions, were discussed.

The group included a number of residents in addition to a few representing groups such as the American Legion and the Greenbelt Historical Society, and two original residents who live outside of Greenbelt now, but treasure their roots. Richard Stevenson, director of parks and recreation for the Maryland National Capital Park and Planning Commission, and a former Greenbelt resident as well as former city director of recreation, also attended. Stevenson has much experience in setting up museums for the county such as Montpelier Mansion and the Mary Surratt House, as well as the historic College Park Airport. He suggested ways that a non-profit organization could be established to run the museum, staffed by volunteers much in the manner of others he has been associated with.

After much discussion, the group decided that the best way to begin to realize their dream of a Greenbelt Museum, housing the original Greenbelt furniture, appliances, heating system, windows, etc., would be to request that the City Council establish a committee to serve as an umbrella organization. The group felt that such an organization, under the auspices of the city, would provide a sense of continuity as well as services from year to year.

From this nucleus of an organization, other activities such as fundraising would emanate. The group further recommended that North End School be the temporary location for the museum pending future purchase (or possible donation) of a GHI house for the permanent site.

McCawley appeared before council to present the group's request on Nov. 8.

CFG Meeting to Discuss City Traffic Patterns

The Citizens for Greenbelt, Inc., will hold a general membership meeting on Wednesday, November 17 at 7:30 p.m. at Eleanor Roosevelt High School.

"Transportation and Traffic Patterns in and around Greenbelt" will be addressed by guest speakers.

Members are urged to attend and the public is invited.

CFG needs a used typewriter, preferably electric. Call D. Baluch, 474-9409.

Rec. Center Offers Discount Tickets to Williamsburg

Colonial Williamsburg offers a wide range of activities that recall the culture of the past.

The Recreation Department offers two types of tickets to gain entrance to the theme park: 10 admission tickets or 18 admissions tickets. Tickets for 6-12 year olds are half price. Children under six are admitted free. The tickets are good for return visits until the admissions are fully used. For more information call 474-6878.

Musical Review At Roosevelt High

The Eleanor Roosevelt High School Chamber Choir will present a Broadway musical revue entitled A Musical Spectrum on Nov. 19 and 20, at 8 p.m. in the high school auditorium. Included in the show are numbers from Cabaret, South Pacific, A Chorus Line, Funny Girl, Bye Bye Birdie and Guys and Dolls.

The cast features a few faces familiar to Greenbelt audiences. These include Helene Davis, who was featured in the musical revue Kaleidoscope, Chris Waelchli who portrayed Conrad Birdie in Bye Bye Birdie at the Utopia Theater and Greenbelter Beth Tavanello, who starred as Ruth Sherwood in Wonderful Town and Rosie Alvarez in Bye Bye Birdie.

RIDGE ROAD CONSTRUCTION

Work will begin shortly on resurfacing and sidewalk construction on Ridge Road between Southway and Gardenway. This work is expected to take three or four weeks to complete. It will result in disruption to normal traffic patterns and the streets may be temporarily closed to through traffic at times. Greenbelt residents should plan to avoid using this particular section of Ridge Road whenever possible.

While this road project will cause some temporary inconveniences, the end result will be an improved street and a new sidewalk for a section of Ridge Road. Your cooperation is appreciated. Anyone wishing further information should call 474-8004.

This project is being undertaken by the City of Greenbelt with funds received from the Community Block Grant Program of the Department of Housing and Urban Development through Prince George's County, Maryland.

RUMMAGE SALE

The Annual Rummage Sale at Mishkan Torah, Ridge Road and Westway, will be held on Sunday, Nov. 14 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Monday, Nov. 15 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. (A Bake Sale will start at 9 a.m. on Sunday).

Featured will be clothes, household items, furniture, linens, suitcases and appliances.

THANKS

To the Editor:

I would like to take this opportunity to sincerely thank the hundreds of people in Greenbelt who worked so long and hard to insure a victory in my election for County Council. It was a true pleasure to work side by side with Greenbelters from every segment of our community. A campaign is a large undertaking and cannot be accomplished by a handful of people. I thank you with all my heart for your time, your talents, and your moral support.

I would also like to thank the many people who went to the polls on November 2 and cast their vote for me. The work that goes into an election is meaningless without the support of the citizens on Election Day. Your show of confidence was heart warming, and makes me proud to be a Greenbelter, as well as your representative on the County Council.

I look forward to continuing a close relationship with my "Greenbelt Family." I promise you my very best efforts. Again, I thank you for proving that the people of Greenbelt can work together to accomplish great things.

Richard J. Castaldi

Siegel-McNeill

Brandy Racheal Siegel of Greenbelt and Paul Spurgeon McNeill, Jr. of St. Louis, Missouri, were married on the first day of autumn aboard the Marianne in Washington, D.C.

The Rev. Glen Knecht of the Wallace Memorial Church in Hyattsville performed the service.

Mrs. McNeill is an exercise physiologist in New York City. She received a B.S. degree in clinical psychology from Towson State University and an M.A. degree in exercise physiology from Adelphi University.

McNeill is a senior manager in the Executive Office of Peat, Marwick, Mitchell & Co. in New York City. He received a B.S., M.B.A. and J.D. degree from the University of Missouri, Columbia, and an L.L.M. degree from Washington University.

The couple will reside in New York City.

La Leche League

The La Leche League will meet on Monday, November 15, at 8 p.m. The meeting will be held at 36-B Ridge Rd. The topic for discussion will be "Breastfeeding: Advantages to Mother and Baby." For information call 345-2670.

THANKS

To the Editor:

I would like to thank in this way so many friends who have expressed so much kindness to me after Ben's passing. I have always known that Greenbelt is a very special place but I don't think I had quite appreciated just how special it is until this experience. The outpouring of love and support have been almost unbelievable. Thank you all.

Margaret Hogensen

THANKS

To the Editor:

I write to thank the citizens of Greenbelt for their votes and their vote of confidence. I will expend every effort to justify and strive in my individual and public life to be worthy of the confidence and faith expressed in me.

By and large, this district was fortunate in this campaign. It was spared the meanness of spirit and the negativism that marked so many other election races across the nation. This was a positive campaign—one waged on the issues and on the qualifications of the opposing candidates. The people made their judgment and, of course, I'm glad I won.

I am glad to have had opposition of the caliber of Burt Oliver. He is a gentleman. Most of all, I am grateful for the unswerving support and loyalty of the many volunteers who contributed so much to the winning campaign.

I hope to give back to the community in the next four years the same faith and support it has given me. I intend to be a senator for all the people of the 23rd District—those who voted for me, those who voted against me, and those who didn't vote at all.

Thanks to my family and friends for putting up with me these past busy and trying months. And thanks, voters. No public official ever had a better constituency.

Gray Panthers Meet On Energy Prices

Gray Panthers will meet Wednesday, November 17 at the Greenbelt Library at 7:30 p.m. for a discussion led by Jonathan Reidy on "Senior Citizen Power and Energy Prices."

Reidy represents the Citizen/Labor Energy Coalition (C/LEC), a national alliance of more than 200 labor, senior, neighborhood, environmental, and religious groups working together for a fair energy policy. It is building a grassroots citizens' force to challenge the power of utility and oil companies and to help shape energy policies.

The coalition, already successful nearby by cutting in half an electric rate increase requested by Baltimore Gas and Electric Company, plans to lobby the Maryland legislature for energy legislation. Goals are to work for fair utility rates, conservation, and solar energy and to require big oil to pay its fair share of taxes.

Also on the November 17 program will be a brief report on a Social Security coalition action with which the Gray Panthers are working. Persons of all age levels are welcome. Refreshments are served. For information call 474-6890.

Greenbelt II 6 year olds, coached by Jane Jenkins, beat Hyattsville on Oct. 9, 3-0. Richard Clark scored his first goal of the season, Mike Davis scored the other two.

The 8-yr.-old County team, coached by George McKeon and George James, tied Hyattsville on Oct. 17, 1-1 in an exciting heart-stopping game. On Oct. 24, Andy again scored the only goal in a tough 3-1 loss to College Park. But on Oct. 31 the team rallied for a big 7-1 victory over Lewisdale. As offense showed its passing skills, Andy James scored 3 goals, Chris Davis two, and Greg Klem and Danny McKeon, one each. Their final record was 3-3-2.

The 9-yr.-old county team, coached by Steve Tapley, beat Kettering 4-0. Adrian Tapley scored 2 goals, Nick Jones, one picture-perfect goal and Jonathan Schacter scored another. Strong midfield control was a big factor in this team victory. John Stringfellow, as sweeper, kept Greenbelt's goalie bored and alone.

On Oct. 24, the 10-yr.-old County team, coached by Bob Cahalan took Cheverly 1-0. Pat Heaney scored the only goal with Timmy Spear assisting. This team improves each week with their heading and passing skills, as well as their team camaraderie, and spirit.

The players still come to practice week after week to work enthusiastically with their teams. All Greenbelt teams and coaches

Buy handcrafted items, reasonably priced, for the winter holiday gift giving season. This Eleventh Annual Show and Sale will be held at the Greenbelt Youth Center on Friday, December 3, 6-10 p.m., and Saturday, December 4, 10 a.m. - 6 p.m. For the little folks, the Children's Room will be open at the same times. Children will also be given the opportunity to participate in making crafts and to buy inexpensive handmade gift items for their family and friends on Saturday.

Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation

The Greenbelt CPR committee and Greenbelt Rec. Depart. encourages interested persons to learn this important life saving technique. The course is free to Greenbelt residents. A nominal fee is charged for non-residents.

Reminiscences

Roosevelt's birthday celebration brought back memories to many Golden Age members. Gladstone S. Lewis won a prize for being the oldest father present at the reception for the first families. His wife, Wave Elizabeth, recalls being one of the Girl Scouts to be bussed out from Washington for the Eleanor Roosevelt tree dedication.

Gertrude Law recalls her father bringing his family out to Greenbelt to review the building of the new homes. He was so impressed he sent for some depression pressed relatives living in Kentucky to find a home in Greenbelt.

Mae McLaughlin, her daughter and son, cousins of Gertrude were thrilled to move to Crescent Road where they lived while Judy and Jack attended Greenbelt High School.

CITY NOTES

Sidewalk and curb were removed along Crescent Road. The crew also backfilled the new curb and sidewalk. Stop lines and crosswalks were painted in various areas of the city.

Dead trees were removed along Crescent Road near Gardenway. Maintenance was done on the ballfields, golf course, and playgrounds. Sod was placed on the parking lot side of the city office building.

Last Week

The general crew removed approximately 300 feet of sidewalk along Crescent Road and new sidewalk was then poured by the contractor. The crew also painted stop lines and crosswalk lines and marked center lines on various streets. Several members of the crew prepared snowplow equipment for the winter season.

The parks crew planted Bradford Pear trees in various areas of the city this week. Maintenance was done on the ballfields

Swim Team Members, Volunteers Honored

Over 90 youngsters were honored by club officials at the Aquatic Boosters Club Annual Banquet held on Friday, September 17, for the Greenbelt swim team. A variety of awards was presented to the youthful participants by Swim Team coach Jeff Douglas and assistants Susan and Karen Jones.

The team's high point trophies, one each for boys and girls, went to Craig Dies and Allison Low. Runners-up were James and Aimee Fellows. Age group high point trophies, also one each for boys and girls, were awarded to Weston Van Wembeke and (runner-up) Kate Greig (8 and under); Damien Hodkinson (runner-up) and Emily Sonneveldt (9-10); Shawn Luddy, Steffan Sonneveldt (tie) and Tara Yaney (11-12); Adam Whitmore (runner-up) and Margaret Williamson (13-14); Brian Dies and Agnes Schrider (15-18).

The Team Spirit Award was given to Daniel Ison. The Most Improved trophy was given to Kathy Barwick.

In addition, the Greenbelt Recreation Department presented the city's 1982 Volunteer of the Year Award for the Swim Team program to Kathie Reed. Kathie was recognized for her continued dedication to the team over the last five years and outstanding contributions, this year, in making the program a success. City Certificates of Meritorious Service and Appreciation were also awarded to: Bob and Joan Dies; Bob and Joy Greig; John and Olive Blue and son Ken; Reggie Smith; Marge Fellows; Mary Lou Williamson; Kathie Reed; John Gordon; Bob Sacrey; Jon and Marilyn Low; Rick Crane; Debbie Kerr; Delha Barwick; Ernie Fellows; Bob and Paula Luddy; Bob and Betty Sonneveldt; George and Jeanne Jones; and Anne Yaney.

Chanteys, Ballads, Harmony Please a Rowdy Crowd

by Rema Boscov

Sea chanteys, ballads and sundry folk songs spiced with five part harmony made up the musical stew cooked up for us by "Clam Chowder" a week ago. An audience, full of noise and enthusiasm, packed the Utopia Theater for this group's second Greenbelt appearance.

"Clam Chowder," five members with strong voices and fine musicianship, brought to life a potpourri of songs spanning continents and centuries. Playing a variety of folk instruments, they wove harmonies with a surprisingly fine blend.

Their a' capella treatments were indeed special. Not a voice pulled away from the others. Not an entry erred.

The group's personalities played as much a role in their presentations as did their musical selections. Sam Van Wyck, basso profundo, became a glint-eyed cunning seducer in "Have Some Madeira, My Dear." John Huff, lead guitarist, gave the group a gentle quietness with his seemingly effortless playing. Kathleen Sobansky's voice changed from tender to tough (almost embarrassingly raucous) and her effervescence was a fine complement to the solidity and humor provided by Greenbelter Bob Estey. Don Stallone, chief shantyman, enjoyed his prominence and played his beer-bottle-bound role to the hilt. "Blow the Man Down" was not just lively. It was rowdy.

In fact, the entire evening was rowdy. "Clam Chowder" has a group of admirers who follow them from concert to concert and call themselves the Clamshell Alliance. They are not just verbal. They are physical, and several times got up to dance when the fancy took them (usually for an

During the October 29 meeting at Mowatt Memorial Church, badges were awarded to Webelos as follows: Brian Veitenthal as scholar and scientist, Nicholas Jones as scholar and artist, David Woodworth as scholar, Justin Marks as scholar and Jerome Parley as scholar, scientist and traveler. Jones, Woodworth, Marks and Parley were also awarded two-year pins.

Bear badges were presented to Webelos Daniel Miller and Justin Marks. Adam Boldt was awarded the Wolf badge and Jerome Parley won the Webelos badge. One-year pins were presented to Douglas Wilson, Jeremiah Pendleton, Daniel Miller, Ryan Mach, John Jay Hilbert and Adam Boldt. A Camporee patch was presented to a parent, John Jones, for his participation and help during the recent Camporee at Greenbelt Park.

Jaycees Seek Volunteers For Big Brothers Program

The Greenbelt Jaycees have initiated, with the cooperation of the Big Brothers Organization, a multi-action community service project to assist the Big Brothers Organization in providing service to more boys from father-absent homes in the local area. Part of the Jaycees' action plan is to involve more eligible men in the program as Big Brother volunteers so that more potential and currently unmatched Little Brothers can be afforded the benefits of the Big Brothers program. In addition, the Jaycees are planning and sponsoring a series of group activities for the matched and unmatched Little Brothers in the Greenbelt area as a supplement to the Big Brothers program.

The Big Brothers Organization is a nationwide movement established over 75 years ago. The program is based on the premise that a boy, in order to reach his full potential as an adult, needs the positive influence of a mature, responsible and responsive male adult (in addition to maternal love and guidance) during his formative years. Where that influence is inadequate because of parental limitations or absence, the boy may be deterred in reaching his full potential as a responsible, contributing adult. The Big Brothers service is designed to meet the needs of such boys through the provision, in one-to-one supportive relationships, of professionally selected, screened and matched Big Brother volunteers. The relationship between the matched youth and the Big Brother serves to enhance the quality of the boy's life and provide a method for the boy to reach his potential.

Irish jig or reel). Surely that lends life to a concert.

But it detracts too. Some numbers, such as "How Can I Keep From Singing," have an emotional appeal which could certainly not be described as rowdy. A concert, like a film, is extra special if it can evoke in us an array of emotions. "Clam Chowder" is capable of doing just that. Unfortunately, last Friday they could only respond to the demands of a high spirited audience, honoring requests and enjoying the jamboree.

Hardly something to moan about, perhaps, but they deserve a pliable audience which can respond to the range and depth they have to offer.

"911" Now Has TDD

Deaf residents of Prince Georges County may now dial the 911 telephone number for emergency service.

When a deaf person dials "911" from teletype equipment in his home an operator at the county emergency center will transfer the call to the teletype machine for appropriate action, thus decreasing the time required for deaf residents to request emergency assistance.

Weatherization Program

The Prince Georges County Office of Emergency Preparedness is operating a weatherization program, which is specifically designed to help low income households, especially the elderly and handicapped, offset the burden of high energy costs. Assistance is available for weatherization activities such as new storm doors and windows, caulking, insulation, etc. Priority is given to those households which are headed by senior citizens. Persons wishing additional information on this program should call 699-2658.

Regarding the Big Brothers Organization, contact Big Brothers (BBNCA) at 483-3536, and ask for Casework Projects. If you are interested in the Greenbelt Jaycees and its Big Brother Project, contact Jeff Keir at 552-9234, Jerry Garfinkel at 856-2617 or Bill Brune at 292-3341.

"A Job Well Done"

Greenbelt Volunteer Fire Department and Ladies Auxiliary have several reasons for celebrating over the past few weeks — trophies, a crown and an honor have fallen upon Company 35. The Prince George's County Volunteer Fireman's Association held their annual convention in Berwyn Heights this year. During the convention "hook-up" contests were held; fire departments vs. fire departments, auxiliaries vs. auxiliaries.

Members of the Greenbelt Ladies Auxiliary participated in the following events: Battle of the Buckets, drafting hook-up, 1½" standing hook-up, seven woman hose coupling, bucket brigade, tug of war, cage ball, and the first alarm (five women dressing in full running gear). Greenbelt's Auxiliary won four of these — tug of war, bucket brigade, seven woman hose coupling and the first alarm.

There is also a trophy all teams strive for — the Sportsmanship Award, which the Greenbelt Ladies Auxiliary also won. The company and auxiliary are very proud of the "hook-up" team members: Nancy Holland (team captain), Mary Fran, Teresa and Jane Crisman, Theresa and Peggy Manuel, Cindy Trudeau, Faye Zoellner, Kathy Reynolds, Donna Aulisio, Edie Stringfellow, Margaret McKenney, Rita Widell and Margie Groht; Coach Skip Bingham, Assistant Coaches Mike Dutton and Bob Berry. To each of you — a job well done.

A new member to the Board of Directors to the Prince Georges Volunteer Firemen's Association has been recently elected. This new member has served as President and Fire Chief of Greenbelt and President of P.G.V.F.A. — another proud moment bestowed on the Greenbelt Fire Department. Congratulations, Vince Dutton. Much success in the coming year. Knowing Vince, as we all do, a 200% effort and participation will be given to his newly elected office.

Peggy Pergola, Vice President of the Auxiliary, has been chosen to serve as Ways and Means Chairman for the Ladies County Association. The County is fortunate to have such a hard working woman on this team.

During convention week, a Fire Prevention queen is crowned. This year the crown was placed on the head of Carolyn Boone, daughter of Danny and Judy Boone. Carolyn represented Company 35 competing against other companies in the county. Carolyn has brought another honor back to her company. We thank Carolyn for representing Company 35.

The enthusiasm, cheers, encouragement and support from members of the department and auxiliary have given new life and spark to these winners. They've insured our success. My grateful appreciation goes to each of you.

—Kathy Reynolds, President
Greenbelt Ladies Auxiliary

Golden Age Club

by Blache E. Lee

The Club will observe the annual Thanksgiving celebration on November 17 at the Youth Center Gymnasium. A catered lunch is planned. Call Agnes Noack for reservations and details at 723-5194.

Seniors who did not attend the Club's Halloween Party at the Youth Center on October 27 really missed a fun-filled afternoon. The Costume Parade was first on the program and headed by "Mae West" — none other than Gertrude Law — all dolled up in a fancy outfit with train, picture hat, and that "Come Up and See Me Sometime" air. Of course, she got first prize. There were so many excellent costumes it was difficult for the judges to make a choice. Second place went to the most original, Martin Holly, dressed as a pirate; third prize to the funniest, Nancy Knoll as a clown; fourth — the prettiest, Mafalda Fusco as the Statue of Liberty. The fifth place, People's Choice, was a tie between Harry Merriman and Louise Murphy.

Some of the costumes were a scream, especially Harry Merryman, dressed as a woman (well-padded, bustle and all) and wearing a red wig. In fact, someone stole his costume while he was eating lunch. Anyone knowing its whereabouts, please return it to the Youth Center.

After all the fun and excitement a potluck lunch was served. Musical entertainment was furnished by Earl Simon, strolling guitarist, who pleased his audience with a number of old favorite songs. It was quite a day! Gertrude Law (alias Mae West) and her committee received high marks for the success of the party.

Wednesday, October 20, was a most enjoyable evening for a large number of Club members who were guests of Goddard Space Flight Center to see a dress rehearsal of "Camelot." The Club greatly appreciates being remembered again this year by the Space Flight Center.

Golden Wedding Anniversaries seem to be the order of the day at the Greenbelt Club. Recently the 50th anniversary of members

GHI NOTES

On Wednesday, Nov. 17 at 8 p.m., GHI begins a series of Energy Management Workshops designed to help members conserve energy and thus save money. The first workshop in this series will focus on keeping records so that members can keep track of energy usage and savings. It will be held in the GHI Board Room.

The GHI Board of Directors will meet on November 18 at 8 p.m.

Greenbelters can find out what a co-op means to area school children at the second annual Co-op Poster Contest Awards Assembly on Monday, Nov. 15 at 3:30 p.m. in Center School Auditorium. Winners will be announced and their entries will be on display. Certificates for all entrants, prizes and refreshments will be distributed. Everyone is invited whether a contest participant or not.

Management would like to remind people that financing is available for GHI homes. Call Steed Mortgage Company (459-2020) or Community Savings & Loan's Greenbelt Twin Pines Office (474-6900).

With cold weather approaching, GHI suggests that members of frame homes bleed outside hose bibs to prevent freezing pipes. The outside hose bib (outside faucet) can be bled by closing the valve control under the sink which controls the outside hose bib and then opening the valve on the outside hose bib. Leave the valve open until warm weather returns. For questions, call 474-2300 or 474-6011.

Members in brick homes should be sure their attic air vents (metal screens between units) are clean. To provide proper ventilation, these vents should not be blocked by dust or furniture.

Herbert and Dorothy Hayghe was celebrated with appropriate ceremony and refreshments.

For Seniors who would like to go shopping at the Columbia Mall, there will be two buses on December 1 leaving Suburban Trust Bank at 9 a.m. Interested members should call Zelpha Parsons for reservations.

Our Neighbors

Sherri Marie Hartwick, daughter of Mike and Susan Hartwick of Greenbelt, was born October 8. Maternal grandparents are Eugene and Joanne Kellaher. Paternal grandparents are Anna and Henry Hartwick of Greenbelt. Great-grandmother is Juliet Slaughter of Greenbelt. Sherri weighed 7 pounds 15 ounces.

Ray Haber of 2 Westway and George Eshbaugh of 12 Ridge Road are recuperating after surgery in the same room at the Washington Adventist Hospital in Takoma Park. We hope they are having a good time together discussing some of the old times and fun events in Greenbelt, despite their aches and pains. Our best wishes to both of them for a speedy recovery.

Officer Pleads Guilty To Misconduct Charge

John C. Krob, 17-year veteran of the Greenbelt Police Department, pled guilty on Oct. 29 to a charge of misconduct in office. Krob was indicted by the grand jury last July for selling eight firearms which had been confiscated by the police and converting proceeds from the sales to his personal use.

The grand jury indictment included two charges of theft, two charges of misconduct in office and two charges of fraudulent misappropriation by a fiduciary. In pleading guilty to one charge of misconduct, Krob was admitting to a misdemeanor and avoiding the more serious charges of theft. Krob will be sentenced on December 3.

Krob was suspended with pay from the police department on March 25 when the State Police were requested to conduct an investigation of allegations against him. As a result of that investigation, Krob was charged, on June 11, with 26 violations of police department administrative regulations and suspended without pay.

On her 85th birthday, Ottilie Norris holds her youngest great grandchild, 7 month-old Christopher Patrick Shanahan.

Ottilie Norris Celebrates Eighty-Fifth Birthday

Ottilie Norris celebrated her 85th birthday on October 11. A greeting from President and Nancy Reagan started the day; then came some of her six daughters and their families, consisting of 24 grandchildren and 25 great-grandchildren, many of whom still live in Greenbelt. Norris has three grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren who have lived in Greenbelt most of their lives. Her sister Amelia visited from Baltimore and her daughter Evelyn Dent and family came up from Florida.

A dinner party was held at the home of grandson Michael Caruso and his wife Beverly. The Shanahans, of Greenbelt, held another party the following Sunday.

Norris was one of the first residents to move into Green

Police Blotter

Compiled by Mavis Fletcher

Two men were arrested on charges of trespass (Peeping Tom) in unrelated cases over the weekend. Sgt. James R. Craze made one of the arrests in the 6100 block of Breezewood Ct. and the other was made by Officer John R. Squires in the 9100 block of Edmonston Rd.

A man wearing a ski mask and described as in his 20's attempted to snatch a woman's purse about 7:20 p.m. on Nov. 5 in the 5100 block of Cherrywood Terrace. When the strap of the purse broke, the man gave up the attempt and fled.

Valuable jewelry was reported stolen from a residence in the 12 Court of Parkway. There was no evidence of forced entry.

Officer John R. Squires arrested six juveniles for drinking on school property in an area behind Center School.

In two separate incidents, five persons were arrested for shoplifting at Marshall's in Beltway Plaza.

A man was arrested in the Greenway Shopping Center for carrying a concealed weapon (knife).

A suspect who slipped past a guard in an office building on Ivy Lane was arrested for unlawful entry and possession of a small amount of narcotics.

Once again a woman's purse was stolen when she left the purse in a shopping cart in the Safeway in Greenway Shopping Center. The purse, containing about $70, has not been recovered. All women shoppers are urged to take care never to leave their purses unattended.

Sgt. Ernest W. Brumley and Cpl. Terrence M. McGrath will attend a one-week Internal Affairs Seminar at the Southern Police Institute in Louisville, KY next week.

Police Chief William T. Lane will attend the conference of the International Association of Police Chiefs in Atlanta next week.

On Oct. 29 at about 11 a.m., a purse was snatched from a woman walking in the 7800 block of Hanover Pkwy. The woman was shoved to the ground. Sgt. Thomas M. Ceccarelli, Pfc. David R. Kress and Cpl. John A. Lann were on the scene when Pfc. Kress spotted the suspect, a 15-year-old male non-resident. When the suspect ran off through the woods, Kress pursued him and arrested him. The purse was recovered intact. Pfc. Kress was commended by Greenbelt Police Chief William T. Lane for his action.

Officer Alan J. Riskin stopped a vehicle for a traffic violation and found stolen property in the car. The operator was charged with possession of stolen goods.

Cpl. John A. Lann arrested a 18-year-old non-resident, male, on the grounds of the Eleanor Roosevelt Senior High School for assaulting a student with a knife. The suspect, who was not a student, was charged with assault and battery, possession of a dangerous weapon and trespassing.

DUPLICATE BRIDGE

On October 29 at the Duplicate Bridge game the team of Ann Pisano and Peg Wainscott was in first place with Clare Jacobs and George Nelson only one point behind in second place. Newcomers Ruth and Frank Loevi of Beltsville were welcomed.

On Friday evening, November 5, in first place were Laura and Bill Walker, tied with Ruth Schultze and Peg Kainscott.

The next game will be held on Friday, November 12 at 7:30 p.m. in the Youth Center.

Sgt. James R. Craze charged two adults with shoplifting at Marshall's in Beltway Plaza.

Officers Eileen Lafer and Timothy F. Hahn graduated from the Southern Maryland Police Academy on Oct. 29. Both will be assigned to duty and further field training immediately. Chief Lane attended the graduation exercises.

Greenbelt Police Chief William T. Lane accepted pedestrian safety awards on behalf of the department from Norman E. Grimm, Manager of the Traffic Safety Division of the American Automobile Association. Greenbelt has now received these these awards for both 1980 and 1981.

Sgt. Ernest W. Bramley, Cpl. Thomas W. Miskell and Officer Ralph J. Canvelone were given Honorable Service Awards upon completion of 15 years of service with the Greenbelt Police Department.
